

THE TRIPP-JONES FAMILY

HALL OF FAME &

RECOGNITION NOMINATION FORMS

Honoring family members who have made exceptional contributions

— Constitution Article 32

1. Overview

Article 32 of the Constitution establishes several forms of recognition to celebrate the achievements, contributions, and legacy of Tripp-Jones Family members. This document provides the nomination forms and selection criteria for each recognition program.

Recognition Type	Description
Family Hall of Fame	Honors members who have made exceptional, lasting contributions to the family, community, or society. (Art. 32, Sec. 7)
Certificate of Appreciation	Recognizes significant contributions to the family or reunion. Presented at reunion meetings. (Art. 32, Sec. 1)
Public Recognition at Reunion	Acknowledges notable achievements, milestones, or dedication during reunion meetings. (Art. 32, Sec. 2)

2. Family Hall of Fame

2.1 Purpose

The Tripp-Jones Family Hall of Fame honors those family members — living or deceased — who have made extraordinary contributions to the family, their community, or broader society. Inductees are formally recognized at the annual reunion banquet, and their legacy is permanently preserved in the family archives.

2.2 Eligibility

- Any current or former member of the Tripp-Jones Family (including deceased members) is eligible.
- A member may be nominated posthumously.
- Officers currently serving on the Executive Committee may be nominated but may not vote on their own nomination.

2.3 Selection Criteria

Nominees are evaluated on one or more of the following:

Criterion	Description
Family Leadership	Exceptional service or leadership within the Tripp-Jones Family organization
Community Service	Outstanding contributions to their local community, church, or civic organizations
Professional Achievement	Remarkable accomplishments in their career or field
Educational Achievement	Pioneer educational accomplishments for the family
Military Service	Honorable and distinguished service in the armed forces
Cultural Preservation	Significant contributions to preserving the family's heritage and traditions
Lifelong Dedication	Decades of unwavering love, support, and presence for the family

2.4 Nomination & Selection Process

1. Any family member may submit a nomination using the Hall of Fame Nomination Form below.
2. Nominations must be submitted to the Secretary no later than 30 days before the annual reunion.
3. The Secretary presents all nominations to the Executive Committee for review.
4. The Executive Committee votes by simple majority to select inductees.
5. No more than three (3) members shall be inducted in any single reunion year.
6. Inductees are announced and honored at the reunion banquet.
7. The Family Historian documents each inductee's profile for permanent archive.
